- a) To discuss, approve or amend Company's annual financial statements subject to the reports presented by the Board of Directors and financial auditor and to establish the distribution of the net profit;
- b) To elect and to revoke the Company's directors;
- c) To appoint and/or to revoke the financial auditor, to establish the minimum term of the financial audit contract;
- d) To establish directors' remuneration for each current year;
- e) To decide upon directors' administration;
- f) To establish the income and expense budget and, as the case may be, the activity schedule for the following financial year;
- g) To decide upon the pledge, rental or disbandment of one or more secondary offices of the company;
- h) To approve the maximum remuneration limits for the persons holding/exercising managing positions whenever the law provides it.
- i) Approves the Remuneration Policy for directors and executive managers.

11.3. The General Extraordinary Assembly has the following attributions:

- a) To change company's legal form;
- b) To change company's registered office;
- c) To change company's object of activity;
- d) To set up or remove secondary offices: branches, agencies, representative offices or any other such units without legal personality, unless otherwise provided by the articles of incorporation;
- e) To extend company's duration;
- f) To increase the share capital;
- g) To decrease the share capital or to reinstate it by issue of new shares;
- h) The merger with other companies or Company's division;
- i) The early winding up of the company;
- j) The conversion of shares from one category into another;
- k) The conversion of a category of bonds into a different category or into shares;
- l) The issue of bonds;
- m) Any other amendment of the articles of incorporation or any other decision which requires the approval of the Extraordinary General Assembly.

The general extraordinary assembly mandates the board of directors to exercise the attributions set forth under letters b) and c) of the paragraph above.

11.4. The General Extraordinary Assembly may delegate to the board of directors the increase of the share capital as per the provisions of art. 236 of the Law no. 297/2004 on capital market.

Art. 12. Convocation

- 12.1. The General Assembly of Shareholders may be convoked by the Board of Directors whenever necessary, by publishing an announcement in the Official Gazette of Romania, 4th Part and in one of the local or national newspapers widely spread in the locality where company's registered office is located. The General Assembly must be convoked by at least 30 days in advance.
- 12.2. The convocation shall provide: the place, date and hour of the assembly, as well as the day's agenda, which shall expressly mention all the issues that will be subject to the assembly's debates, the reference date, the manner in which the documents and information related to the issues on the agenda will be distributed, the date such documents and information will be available, the manner of obtaining the special power of attorney form for representation in the general assembly, the deadline and the location for the submission/receipt of such special power of attorney forms, as well as the proposal regarding the registration date.
- 12.3. When the agenda includes proposals to amend the articles of incorporation, the convocation shall include the integral text of the proposals.
- 12.4. When the agenda includes issues such as the election of the directors, the convocation shall include the mention that the list containing the names, domicile and professional qualification of the persons proposed for the managing position is available for consultation and filling by the shareholders.
- 12.5. The notice for the first General Assembly may include the day and the hour for the second assembly, in case the first assembly cannot be held. If the date for a second General Assembly is not specified in the notice, it may be convoked within at least 8 days.

Art. 13. Organization

- 13.1. In order for the general ordinary assembly's deliberations to be validated, it is necessary for the shareholders holding at least one fourth of all the voting rights to be present. The resolutions of the general ordinary assembly will be made subject to majority of casted votes.

Should the assembly fail to function due to the non-fulfilment of the conditions mentioned under par. (1) above, the assembly which shall reconvene after the second convocation may deliberate upon the issues mentioned on the agenda of the first assembly, regardless the quorum, making decisions subject to majority of casted votes.

In order for the general extraordinary assembly's deliberations to be validated, it is necessary upon the first convening the presence of the shareholders holding at least one fourth of all the voting rights and upon the following convening, the presence of the shareholders holding at least one fifth of all the voting rights.

The resolutions of the general extraordinary assembly will be made subject to majority of votes held by the present or represented shareholders. The decision concerning the amendment of the company's activity object, the share capital increase or decrease, the change of the company's legal form, the company's merger, spin-off or winding-up will be made subject to a majority of at least two thirds of all the voting rights held by the present or represented shareholders.

13.2. In the case of the share capital increases, the denial of the first-refusal right of the shareholders to subscribe the new shares must be decided in the extraordinary general meeting of shareholders, in which are participating shareholders holding at least 85% of the subscribed share capital, and with the vote of the shareholders which represents at least 3/4 of the voting rights. Pursuant to the denial of the first-refusal right of the shareholders to subscribe the new shares, these shall be offered to the public for subscription, with the observance of the provisions on the public sales offers under Chapter V of Law no. 297/2004 and of the regulations issued in their implementation thereof. Share capital increases by contribution in kind must be approved by the extraordinary general meeting of shareholders, in which participate shareholders holding at least 85% of the subscribed share capital, and with the vote of the shareholders holding at least 3/4 of the voting rights. The contributions in kind may only consist of new assets and performances necessary for the completion of the object of activity of the issuing company.

13.3. The General Assembly is presided by the Chairman of the Board of Directors or by its proxy, which shall appoint from among the members of the General Assembly or the company's shareholders, a number of one up to three secretaries, plus a technical secretary from amongst the employees. Said secretaries shall verify shareholders' presence list and shall draft the minutes of the assembly. If within 30 minutes (or, as the case may be, within another time set by the chairman of the Assembly, not longer than 1.5 hours) from the hour specified in the notice convening the General Assembly – the first convocation – the required quorum is not reunited or if during the General Assembly the quorum is no longer reunited, the chairman of the session and the secretary shall draw-up minutes ascertaining such event. In this case, the General Assembly shall be held upon a second convocation, on the date specified in the notice convening the Assembly, or, as the case may be, on the date set according to the applicable legal provisions (in lack of an express provision in the notice).

13.4. The special power of attorney is valid only for the General Assembly of the Shareholders for which it was requested. The votes subject to the special power of attorney will be exercised only in the manner set forth by the shareholder.

13.5. The person representing several shareholders subject a special power of attorney will cast the votes of the represented persons by summing up the number of votes "for", "against" and "abstention", however without compensating them (for example, "at the point x on the agenda, I, the undersigned, herein represent "a" votes for, "b" votes against and "c" abstentions"). The votes thus castes are validated or, as the case may be, invalidated by the secretary of the general assembly, subject to the 3rd form of the special power of attorneys.

- 13.6. The resolutions of the General Assembly will be made subject to open vote, except for the cases in which the general assembly decides upon the secrecy of the vote or if the law requires it.
- 13.7. The resolutions of the General Assembly are mandatory for all the company's shareholders, including the ones that did not attend the meeting or voted against.
- 13.8. The General Assembly may convene at the Company's headquarters or in other locations established by the directors in the convocation.
- 13.9. The shareholders may be represented in the general meeting by persons that are not shareholders of the company, in reliance of a limited or general power of attorney.
- 13.10. Within the content of the present article, the mentions regarding the present shareholders will be deemed to refer both to the shareholders attending the meeting in person and to the ones represented by proxies.

CHAPTER V COMPANY'S MANAGEMENT (UNITARY SISTEM). THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Art.14. Organization

- 14.1. Company's business is conducted by a Board of Directors comprising 7 members appointed by the General Ordinary Assembly of Shareholders that may be shareholders of the Company, natural or legal persons, of Romanian or foreign citizenship/nationality. The directors will appoint the Chairman of the Board of Directors from among them. Whenever a legal person is appointed director, upon such appointment stipulating the legal person is bound to appoint a permanent representative-natural person.
- 14.2. The directors' mandate will last for 4 years, unless the General Assembly of the Associates establishes another mandate term, at the same time with the election of the director. Upon the expiry of the mandate, any member may be re-elected by the general assembly.
- 14.3. The Board of Directors convenes at least once a quarter or any time needed.
- 14.4. The convocation of the Board of Directors will specify the place and date of the meeting and its agenda.
- 14.5. The sessions of the Boards of Directors are held in the presence of at least half of the number of attending members, the resolutions being validly adopted if made with an absolute majority of its attending members' votes. In case of votes' parity, the chairman has the decisive vote. By „attendance” it is understood both the physical presence and the intellectual presence: by teleconference, videoconference, as well as by correspondence through mail or courier or by fax with name in print and signature, both the direct presence on own behalf and representation through another member of the board.

An attending member may represent only one absent member.

On the occasion of each session of the Board of Directors, meeting minutes will be drafted containing the name of the attending members, the agenda, the decisions made, the number of cumulated votes and separate opinions, signed by the Chairman of the session and by at least another director. It is accepted as a validly signed meeting minutes the cumulated copies of the minutes with the same content, individually signed as per the preceding paragraph.

- 14.6. In case of vacancy (resignation of the director, legal incapacity, physical incapacity for more than 45 days, death etc.) of one of the directors, the other directors, deliberating in the presence of two thirds and with absolute majority, proceed to the appointment of another interim director until the date the general ordinary assembly following to appoint the new director is convened.

Art.15. Attributions.

15.1. The Board of Directors has the following main attributions:

- a) to establish the Company's main activity and development guidelines;
- b) to establish the accounting and financial control system and to approve the financial planning;
- c) to appoint, revoke, terminate, suspend and cease the contracts of the Company's managers;
- d) to supervise the managers' activity;
- e) to prepare the annual report, to organize the general assembly and to implement its resolutions;
- f) To file the request for opening the Company's insolvency procedure, as per the Law 85/2006 on insolvency procedure;
- g) Except for the legal documents which, according to the imperative provisions of the law, in order to be adopted/concluded, need the approval of the General Assembly of Shareholders, the Board of Directors will decide upon the adoption/conclusion, Company's behalf, of legal documents having an object which exceeds the value of:
 - i. 50,000,000 USD, in case of legal acts having as object the procurement of crude oil and the distribution of refined products;
 - ii. 20,000,000 USD in case of legal acts having another object than the procurement of crude oil and/or the distribution of refined products, the approval of the participation to the set up other trade companies by contribution exceeding such limit, other documents of patrimonial nature exceeding such limit.

These attributions will not be mandated to company's managers.

15.2. In accordance with the art. 114 of Law nr. 31/1990 (republished), the Board of Directors has been delegated the following responsibilities by the General Extraordinary Assembly of Shareholders:

- a) To decide upon the relocation of company's registered office;
- b) To decide upon the change of the core business (except for company's main domain of activities and main object of activities);
- c) To decide upon the share capital increase by way of issuing of new shares, as per the provisions of the law.

15.3. The Board of Directors will exercise its attributions by adopting resolutions.

CHAPTER VI THE EXECUTIVE BOARD

Art. 16. The delegation of management

16.1. The General Manager and the Economic Manager are the only positions that company's management may be delegated to, according to the provisions of art. 143 of the Law no. 31/1990 on trade companies. Any other management position in the company (i.e. human resources manager, trade manager, administrative manager, IT manager etc.), regardless of its name, will not be deemed to include company's management.

Art. 17. Organization and functioning

17.1. All Company's organizational structures are directly subordinated to Company's General Manager, who at his/her turn is directly subordinated to the Board of Directors.
